Why attend the Ball State camp? What puts the Ball State football camp at a higher level?

Our camp is a technique-oriented camp for high school players at all positions and all skill levels. It is not a recruiting combine restricted to upperclassmen. All your players will improve; they will be coached how to play football the Ball State way; they will learn good football skills and techniques for their positions; and they will have fun.

This is a guarantee from the Ball State football coaching staff and Head Coach Stan Parrish.

It's not too late!

Walk-up registration is accepted on the day of the camp.
